

Hark how the chirping Treble sings most clear
And covering Tom comes rolling in the rear,
Now drive them up an end that all may see
What laws are best to keep sobriety,
We ring the quick to church the dead to grave
Good is our aim, such songs let us have,
To cheer or cure or in a choleric mood,
To strike or quassel though he draws no blood,
To wear a hat a spur or overturn a bull,
Who by unskillful handling mars a peal
Such shall pay sixpence for each single crime
To make him cautious 'gainst another time,
Therefore all times the treaty shall be spent
To which the whole society do consent,
Anno Dom. 1510.
